Capt. McAlpin of the Seventh in Second Place at End of First Stage of National Match-New York Men Do Well Under Disagrecable Conditions at Sea Girt.

SEA GIRT, Aug. 25.—New York won the first honors in the uncompleted national individ-ual match to-day, Capt. George W. Corwin the Seventy-first Regiment putting up top score for the slow fire aggregate with total of 182 points. This was scored out of a possible 200 points for the 200, 300, 500 and 600 yards, and captured the gold medal offered for the highest aggregate at the slow fire ranges. Corwin is one of the cracks of the New York team and has been a umber of the State team for the last three experienced shots, who were industried by the baffling changes, were little short of remarkable.

At the recent New York Association meeting At the recent New York Association meeting at Creedmoor he won the State championship, and his work this season has been consistently strong. Capt. B. B. McAlpin of the Seventh New York was close on his team mate's heels with a total of 180, and the win was not decided until McAlpin's last shot at 600 yards was marked up. The splendid work of Col. Thurston's men stood out conspicuously throughout the two days shooting, and all of the team members averaged centers or above for the four ranges. Their scores follow:

At 10:30 the conditions, in the opinion of the officers in charge of the match, were so bad that all tarkets were sashed and covered up and the range was quiet until 10 o'clock. No attempt was made at rapid fire at the conclusion of the slow fire, but at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning the first relay of competitors will line up for the 200 yardrange. The rapid fire at this range and at 500 yards will occupy most of to-morrow's working hours, leaving the skirmish runs and the individual platol match to be run off.

The consensus of opinion on the range to-night is that the individual match will not be completed before Tuesday evening should the weather conditions materially improve. Gen. W. P. Hall, the executive officer of the match, proposes to run the skirmish off at the rate of a run in fifteen minutes. With 600 odd competitors the runs cannot be completed under twelve hours, even should this fast rate be maintained. The impossibility of finishing the national match in three days is also conceded by Gen. Hall and his assistants. Any hopes that may have been entertained of its completion in three days received a setback when the proposition of Col. Thurston that the time limit at 800 and 1,000 yards be reduced from two minutes to a minute per shot was defeated at a meeting of the team captains.

TAX REFORM IN GREENWICH. State Treasurer Walsh Says Present Assess ment Is a Parce. GREENWICH, Conn., Aug. 25.-Reform fellows reform in Greenwich. Now it is a reform in the method of assessing property that is about to take place. Millionaire Cheney told the whole world that Greenwich was the worst governed town on the map, and Greenwich promptly got on its feet and shouted he was talking through his hat.

Then in the same breath the borough instituted a uniformed police force and system of beats, and now the talk is for reform in the methods of assessing, a reform which will put the bulk of taxation on the shoulders of the rich men who have bought up most of the desirable property of the town and of the unwealthy middle class who are holding the desirable real property until they "get their price for it."

James F. Walsh, State Treasurer of Connecticut is credited with the pending reform, but Mr. Cheney's pamphlet seems to be really the little joker that set the ball

"Put the burden of taxation where it belongs," said Treasurer Walsh, himself a native of Greenwich, to the Greenwich citizens," and you will pay off your town debt in one year and you won't have to get into debt again.

'Is it fair for a New Yorker to swear off $600,000 of personal property in his own State and list it about $25,000 in Greenwich? That's what's being done. Your property is not assessed for one-fourth its value, and your assessors ought to realize that it is a hoaring farce to publish the grand list of Greenwich at $10,000,000."

of Greenwich at $10,000,000."

seform is in the air and the coming town election will be fought out on the platform of "assessment of real property at the full value instead of at 50 per cent. of its value."

The wealthy New York folk who own property here are up in arms over Mr. Walsh's remarks. They consider them a personal affront.

It is understood they will contribute liberally to the campaign fund of the party opposed to the reform in assessment. The election is expected to be one of the warm-est in the history of the town.

Mr. Walsh singles out George Dominick, a New York broker, as an instance of the present methods of assessing property.

Mr. Dominick's property is listed at $30,000 and, according to one of the assessment.

and, according to one of the assessors, it is worth $250,000. W. H. THOMPSON VERY ILL.

St. Louis Fair Treasurer Is Stricken by Heart Disease at Aven.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 25.—Worn out by his duties as treasurer of the St. Louis exposition, W. H. Thompson, president of the St. Louis National Bank of Commerce, is seriously ill at Avon. Mr. Thompson is a guest at the summer cottage of his daughter, Mrs. F. A. Luyties. He has been in ill health since last Newember, having broken down completely after the great fair. A week ago he was stricken a second time with heart disease, and he is now in a precarious condition. He is 74 years old.

TOM JOHNSON'S BUSY DAY. Caught in the Rain, He Orders Over

Multon's Worth of Trolley Equipment.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Aug. 25.- Caught in the rain here while on a tour with his wife in an auto, Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland went to the office of the Lehigh Valley Transit Company, whose 180 miles of trolley tracks were built by his brother, the late Albert L. Johnson. This system was recently reorganized after a foreclosure sale, and it is sorely in need of improvements. Calling the other directors and the engineers of the company together, Mayor Johnson in a few hours ordered a new power equipment, rolling stock and other essentials that will cost between $1,100,000 and $1,200,000. He also directed one of the officers of the company here to move to Trenton and take charge of the sixty mile Johnson trolley system centering in that city. He plans to build a line from Trenton to Willow Grove, right up against Philadelphia from a northeasterly direction. The Philadelphia branch of the Allentown line runs to Chestnut Hill. When Mayor Johnson was asked if his recent call on Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia had anything to do with any intention he might have of entering the trolley field there, he replied that his plans hadn't matured suficiently to be made public.

TWO ON PARLOR CAR STEP. With the Train Whizzing On and the Vesti· bule Doer Leeked. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Aug. 25 .- George B. Breon, a rich lumberman, and his wife had a terrifying experience on a fast Pennsylvania train last night. They rode five miles while clinging to the railing of a parlor car, having only the step of the car on which to stand. They boarded the train at Watsontown, but the porter of the car failed to open the vestibule door and the train got under headway. Mrs. Breon chutched the handle of the door, while Mr. Breen held fast to the guard rail.

The telegraph operator at Watsontown saw their perilous position as the train ran past the station and sent a message to Dewart tower, five miles up the line, to Geo. R. Read & Co., flag the express. When the train reached the tower Mrs. Breon was found to be in & condition of nervous collapse.

T. P. SHONTS'S YACHT BURNED. The Magruder, Owned by Chairman of Panama Commission, Destroyed. MOBILE, Ala., Aug. 25 .- The splendid yacht Magruder, owned by T. P. Shonts of the Panama Canal Commission, was burned to the water's edge last night.

There was no insurance. The yacht had been cruising in the Gulf for some time, and but a few days ago a report came that the entire crew had deserted. She was to have come over to Pensacola for a short stay. The craft was one of the finest in Southern waters.

AFTER COLLEGE PROFESSIONALS. Western Institutions Will Suffer Loss of Many Baseball Players.

The colleges of the West are going to take a step forward in the purification of sport without regard to the general advance all over the country. They have taken up the question of summer baseball with the conciseness that is befitting and have determined to fight out the issue this year. Many colleges both East and West have rules against summer baseball which, however, amount to nothing because it is believed that the men have a right to play in the summer if they wish, provided that they do not take money for it. The Western colleges now purpose to efface the sentimental attitude and to see to it that men who violate this rule, as long as it is a rule, shall be punished. With this end in view members of the college conference faculty committee have been devoting their time to looking up the summer baseball situation. As a result it is said upon good authority just about half the college baseball players of the big conference have fallen under the ban, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, the ban, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Purdue, Northwestern, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, all have men whose names are to be reported and whose college athletic activities are thereby to be curtailed.

The rule applies to professionals, or so-called semi-professionals. Some colleges have given their athletes permission to play with the amateur teams of their home towns, but this is considered all right. towns, but this is considered all right. The committee has been after the "pros," The committee has been after the "pros," and judging by the results the summer must have been spent in hard labor by some of its members. The evidence has been accumulated in the most painstaking way, so that no really guilty man may escape through a subterfuge. It is hinted that the University of Wisconsin will be the hardest hit, while the Chicago people declare that their team will be found to be composed of some but simon pures.

their team will be found to be composed of none but simon pures.

The exact facts will be better known when the committee meets at Thanksgiving. It is said, however, that Lewis, a pitcher on the Wisconsin team, was playing with a Soo League nine in northern Michigan before his college season ended, and that Person accepted a position on a Western team. Hoelz joined a team in Racine, it is declared. These are the Wisconsin cases. Purdue, Michigan, Indiana and Illinois also are directly aimed at in the cases known to have been found.

If the committee acts as it is announced, to have been found.

If the committee acts as it is announced, a situation will be created similar to that in the Southern Intercollegiate Association, where one fearless member of the faculty governing committee disqualified practically half the competing baseball players as ineligible through summer playing. He weakened the quality of baseball, but purified the league. This happened at the beginning of the season just closed.

BURNS KILL MRS. WHITE. Mother of R. T. White Dies of Injuries

Received on Thursday. Mrs. Elizabeth White, mother of R. T. White, head of the International Tin Com-White, head of the International Tin Company of Bayonne, died yesterday at her home in that city from burns received on Thursday night, when a canopy covering her bed caught fire from a gate jet. Mrs. White seized the faming canopy, took it to the bathroom and extingensed the blaze in the bathrub. In doing so she was terribly burned about the hands and body, and these injuries resulted fatally. Mrs. White was 68 years old.

Says He's Not Engaged to Miss Kelly. Allan Macnaughtan of Teaneck, N. J., Allan Macnaughtan of Teaneck, N. J., president of the Standard Coach Horse Company of New York, denied yesterday that he had been married to Miss Myra Kelly of 117 East Fifty-ninth street, the author of "Little Citizens" and other tales of East Side life. Mr. Macnaughtan also denied the oft printed statement that he was engaged to Miss Kelly. Both statements were confirmed by J. I. C. Clarke, Miss Kelly's uncle.

More Than One-half of the Private Sales

Published Yesterday Affected the Northeasterly Part of Manhattan -Searcity of Apartments the Cause. Considerably more than one half of the sales reported yesterday affected property in Harlem. Many new flats were disposed of by builders, a number of sites containing private dwellings were bought for reimprovement with flats, and professional operators dealt extensively in antiquated multi-family houses capable of being remodeled and sold to investors at an advance in price. Harlem just now is undoubtedly the chief center of activity in Manhattan and The Bronx, although all the important congested residence districts in those boroughs share in the present realty movement.

When the figures of the State census are published in detail it will probably be found that the principal growth of population, area for area, in this city has taken lation, area for area, in this city has taken place in Harlem. In 1900 that section contained a notably large percentage of vacant apartments, according to the Health Department's canvass. Despite much building in the meantime there is now a distinct scarcity of housing in the uptown territory served by the elevated roads and the easterly branch of the subway. By way of illustration, a prominent Harlem renting agency, the Webb Realty Company, with a list of 4,500 apartments on its books, is in a position to state that it has only eighty-seven apartments to let, although more than a month remains of the fall renting season.
